Gonzo is and always will be before his time

After a long, hard street skating session
We had a pool skating session, swimming pool that is. Here Matt Z. shows us his one footed invert!!! Chris - frontside boneless

The skater shown above is a local California skater which skates pretty much all terrain but when asked what he liked the best he replied "RAMP" so watch for him his name is Chris.

Here Chris is shown doing a 360° slide which he calls his Chris Twist?

A Delmar local rips a rad invert on our latest trip to the Ranch.

Gonzales barrowed somebodys movie camera and started to ask people "Why are you here?" And when Gonzo was confronted with this question he simply replied "I don't know, to pick up on chicks!" On our recent trip to the streets of San Francisco we ran into a street sign which read "POWELL street".

POWELL-Is soon to come out with a NEW Martinez model!

GERRERO has his own sticker out now. I don't understand it, it's just a ball of fire, I thought Powell could do something a little more graphic.

STEADHAM DESIGNS are finally out they look like good boards. It looks like SURE GRIP finally did good.

Well Bob Schmeltzer is really making money first BACK TO THE FUTURE and now the Mountain DEW add in which both Bob Schmeltzer and Tony Hawk appear. It's rad, watch for it.
